Sub: Conduct of D.El.Ed programme for the registered untrained teachers and the Study Centres - regarding

To,

All The Regional Directors/ State Coordinators/ State Nodal Officers

As you are aware that 13.78 Lakhs untrained in-service teachers have registered online with NIOS for the D.El.Ed Course. A Project Implementation Committee (PIC) has been constituted by MHRD under the Chairmanship of Member Secretary, NCTE Sh. Sanjay Awasthi to ensure effective implementation of the amendment in the RTE Act for training of untrained in-service elementary teachers by monitoring the conduct of programmes in identified NIOS D.El.Ed Study Centres in all States and UTs.

2. It has been observed by the member of PIC during the visit to Study Centre that the attendance in PCP was low at one Study Centre Bhartiya Prakshishan Sansthan, Behror in Alwar Rajasthan. All Trainee Teachers must attend the Personal Contact Programme (PCP). In case of less than 75 percent attendance in PCP, Trainees may likely to be debarred from appearing in the examination. All absentee teachers have been issued warning letter(copy attached).

3. It was also observed by the member that some manipulation in respect of attendance and other documents have been done by the Study Centre Coordinator and Resource Persons at Behror, Alwar, Rajasthan D.El.Ed Study Centre for which the Study Centre Coordinator has been issued warning letter asking him to submit his explanation (copy attached).

4. You are requested to kindly ensure that all records must be maintained properly as per norms and no such activity at the Study Centre will be accepted. If found involved in any such activity necessary action will be initiated against such Study Centres.

With regards

Yours Sincerely.

(S K Prasad)

Joint Director(CBC)
